

The Lord's Supper

The bread and wine will soon be set
And Christ, He gives the call
To come, to share, to hear, to learn
Of God, who loves us all

The Table, it is set for all
And each may have find their place
Perfection? It is required of none
Admission, is by Faith

In God as Love! In Christ His Son!
In the Spirit that transforms!
In the love that changes everyone
In the hearts that Grace will warm

So set aside your pride, and heed
The invitation that is given
By Christ to YOU, through you to all
An earthly glimpse of Heaven!

The bread is bread, the wine is wine
That truth we do proclaim
But in the sharing, heeding the Word
We'll take our leave of pain

And find instead, our strength renewed
Through Christ, His presence there!
Renewed to praise, renewed to strive
Renewed to LOVE and CARE.
